A QUINTESSENTIAL COTSWOLD HOME

Tucked away in the heart of a sought-after Cotswold village, this enchanting thatched residence exudes charm and character. Believed to date back several centuries, the home is Grade II listed and constructed of mellow Cotswold stone, with later additions providing generous and adaptable accommodation across two floors. Approached via a private driveway leading to ample parking, the cottage is set behind mature hedging and nestled within wonderfully private gardens. A detached annexe offers versatile ancillary accommodation, ideal for guests, extended family, or as a home office.

ACCOMMODATION

The interiors are rich in period detail, seamlessly blended with modern touches to create a warm and welcoming home. A stunning drawing room with vaulted ceiling, exposed Cotswold stone walls, and views over the garden sets the tone for the property. The sitting room and study both feature large inglenook fireplaces with wood-burning stoves, perfect for relaxed evenings. The kitchen is the heart of the home, fitted with a range of cabinetry, a traditional range cooker, integrated appliances, pantry, and a breakfast bar. This space opens through to the dining room, with French doors providing direct access to the garden – ideal for entertaining in the warmer months.

A generous utility room with fitted units, appliances, and a cloakroom adds further practicality, while a boot room offers useful storage after country walks. Upstairs the four bedrooms are generous and most have bespoke wardrobes and delightful garden views. All are served by two stylish bath/shower rooms.

THE ANNEXE

Detached from the main house and offering excellent privacy, the annexe comprises a sitting room, bedroom, shower room, and space allocated for a kitchenette if desired. This flexible space is ideal as a holiday let, studio, or for independent living.

GARDENS & GROUNDS

The rear garden to a newly planted beech hedge is 37m x 37m. The mature rear garden is a particular highlight, filled with colour and character. Stocked borders, flowering shrubs, and a range of established trees create a tranquil haven and a true sense of seclusion.
